DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election of Group I, claims 1-7 in the reply filed on 08/19/04 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).
2. Claims 8-14 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 08/19/04.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-4 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Oh et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,642,125 B2)

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C.

102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37

Art Unit: 2815

CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention “by another,” or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

In re claim 1, Oh (Fig. 3E) discloses a semiconductor device, comprising:

A first region of a substrate having a first trench (106b), the first trench having a first aspect ratio¹;

A first filling element (108) having a first insulation material (oxide) continuously formed on a bottom face and sidewalls of the first trench, and a second insulation material (114) completely filling a first sub-trench formed in the first trench by the formation of the first insulation material;

A second region of the substrate having a second trench (106a), the second trench having a second aspect ration smaller than the first aspect ratio; and

A second filling element having a third insulation material (108) continuously formed on a bottom face and sidewalls of the second trench, a fourth insulation material (110) formed on a bottom face and sidewalls of a second sub-trench formed in the second trench by the formation of the third insulation material, and a fifth insulation material (114) completely filling a third sub-trench formed in the second sub-trench by the formation of the fourth insulation material.

In re claim 2, Oh discloses the device of claim 1, wherein the first aspect ratio is at least about twice the second aspect ratio.

In re claim 3, Oh discloses the device of claim 1, wherein the first insulation material (oxide) is identical to the third (oxide) and fifth (HDP oxide) insulation materials.

Art Unit: 2815

In re claim 4, Oh discloses the device of claim 3, wherein the first, third and fifth insulation materials include an oxide.

In re claim 7, Oh discloses the device of claim 1, wherein the first trench is formed in a cell region of the substrate, and the second trench is formed in a peripheral region of the substrate.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 5 and 6 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
